

WANTED

Who: Runners seeking the excitement of a police foot chase

What: The 7th annual Kazoo Area Foot Chase

The Kazoo Area Foot Chase is a 3.5-mile fun run patterned as a police foot chase in pursuit of a fleeing suspect. The unconventional course may include fences, fields, business districts, neighborhoods, and even buildings. "Witnesses" located along the route give the only clues where to go next. The course is not certified, but the event is timed. Awards go to the top 2 times in each age category (male/female). Prizes also go to runners who catch a suspect or recover contraband along the way. Additional prize to the first police/corrections officer or dispatcher (ID required) across the finish line.

In addition to the run, the event also includes a variety of public safety demonstrations and exhibits that are fun for the entire family.

When: Saturday, September 6, 2008

Registration and check-in: 7:00 – 8:30 am / Race Time: 9:00 am

Where: Celery Flats, Garden Lane east of S. Westnedge, Portage, Michigan

Why: The Kazoo Area Foot Chase is a benefit for Michigan Concerns of Police Survivors (MI-COPS). MI-COPS is a non-profit organization that supports the survivors of Michigan police officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty.
